

EMERITUS PROFESSOR MIKE HEFFERAN had, for over nine years, been ProVice Chancellor (Engagement) at the University of the Sunshine Coast, Queensland Australia and Professor of Property and Development at that university. During that time, he was also an Adjunct Professor at the Queensland University of Technology, Brisbane.

He has an economics background with particular expertise related to major property development, finance and taxation and regional development.

Prior to that, he was for many years the Executive Director and Deputy Director General of the Queensland Department of State Development with responsibility for that state's regional development, property assets and major development projects. He is widely experienced in most property and economic sectors in Queensland and elsewhere.

He consults widely to government in Queensland and other parts of Australia, the United States, Canada and Hong Kong.

He is co-editor of the Australasian Journal of Regional Studies and has authored numerous publications including a definitive text, Real Property in Australia.

He is a Registered Valuer and has a PhD and Masters of Applied Science. He is a Fellow and past State President of the Australian Property Institute and has had long association, as Fellow, with the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors, Australian Institute of Company Directors and of the Urban Development Institute of Australia.

In 2016 he was awarded the rare title of Emeritus Professor, only the fourth recipient of that honour in the history of USC.
